

The logo for the Escuela de Gobierno (School of Government) is a dark grey rectangle with the text "ESCUELA DE GOBIERNO" in white, uppercase letters.

ESCUELA DE GOBIERNO

The School of Government of Adolfo Ibáñez University, invites applicants to submit applications and background information for the position of Research Professor on a full-time basis at its campus in Peñalolén (Santiago, Chile), beginning in August 2022 (with flexibility).

Applicants must have a Ph.D. in Political Science or related disciplines, and demonstrate an empirical research agenda on issues of public interest (public policies, political institutions, political processes, comparative politics, political sociology, political economy, among others). Research Professors are expected to carry out high-level academic research, to teach effectively, and to participate in and contribute to the multidisciplinary academic environment of the School. Applicants must be able to teach in Spanish at the undergraduate and graduate level.

Candidates must submit their background information, including a cover letter, updated curriculum vitae, completed academic research papers (in PDF), and two letters of recommendation.

Deadline to submit information: May 30, 2022

Please submit required information to the following email address: carolina.apablazam@uai.cl (the subject heading must say "Application for Academic Position")